In choosing a partner for your real estate transaction, you deserve the best in representation. The broker you choose should be knowledgeable, reliable, professional and trustworthy. Not to mention attentive, compassionate, helpful and an advocate. These are qualities that I take pride in bringing to the table. As my client, you are my top priority - I am completely committed to protecting your interests and helping you achieve your goals.

The home court advantage....

I am a native Portlander- a rare bird as I understand it! I've watched the city grow up and become one of the most livable spots in the country. As a life-long resident, I'm very familiar with the entire Metropolitan area and know the many nuances of its truly unique neighborhoods. This translates to an innate understanding of how to best market your property or find just the right house for you and your unique requirements.

It's all in the details....

As graduate of the University of Oregon School of Law with over 30 years of combined sales/marketing experience, and a being perfectionist at heart, I have a strong sense of organization and the distinct ability to manage the many pieces of a real estate transaction while keeping you informed every step of the way. As a Certified Negotiation Expert (CNE), I have the skills to make sure you are well-represented in the negotiation process- a key aspect of every real estate transaction.

And finally....

Buying or selling a home is both a business and a personal life event and your home search or sale is just as important to me as it is to you. You are not just a means to an end; you are a valued client and partner deserving of the highest level of service.

"I was most impressed. At the very least, you have restored my faith that there can be a top-notch/good Realtor® in every sense of the word." S.J. (Buyer/Seller)
