ABOUT RAINA

You can't think of Oregon without thinking of rain, and you can't think of Raina without thinking of Oregon. Born in the picturesque rolling foothills of the Oregon Coast Range, she has always had a deep connection to her native state.

Whether it is skiing down Mt. Hood's rugged timber-lined glaciers, biking the trails of a logging road, or running through fields of pristine farmland, Raina enjoys her time spent outdoors. She is often accompanied by friends and family – her husband and three boys in particular. And even with her busy and active life, she still finds quiet times to reflect, worship and serve in her community. Unlike her wet namesake, Raina brings a smile to everyone's face spreading sunshine wherever she goes.

Professionally, Raina's connection to the area runs just as deep. As a Licensed Realtor, she has had her hand in the selling and marketing of Portland area homes since 2001. She is also the co-owner of several businesses, including Luxury Home Magazine of Oregon | SW Washington.

TEAMWORK

Raina is always willing to tackle any challenge and help in any way that she can. With her great communication skills, creativity, pleasing personality and warm, welcoming smile, she is truly a treasure. @HOME Property Group is so fortunate to have Raina onboard, and we know you will enjoy working with her too!
